COUNSELING SERVICES
PEER HELPER PROGRAM
APPLICATION
2010-2011

The NJC Peer Helpers are a student leadership organization responsible for promoting issues relating to healthy lifestyles, including alcohol, impaired driving, tobacco cessation, sexual responsibility, healthy eating, fatigue and stress. They also receive Certified Peer Educator (CPE) training through our BACCHUS Network affiliation. This certification enables them to provide peer counseling to NJC student and friends, as appropriate.
